

The Kootenay Book Weekend

is designed for passionate page-turners who like to talk about the books they read. There are 4 sessions, with no more than 14 participants in each discussion group. A facilitator leads the discussion in a friendly and informal atmosphere. The only requirement is to read the books before the discussions.

Volunteers

Committee

The weekend is organized by volunteers. We welcome more volunteers to carry us into the future. Please sign up during the weekend.

Facilitators

Approximately 20 volunteers are needed to lead the discussion groups over the weekend. For those volunteering to facilitate, a resource package will be provided prior to the weekend. In addition, at the Friday evening meeting, we will provide information on facilitating a successful book discussion.

Discussion Questions

If you have any suggestions for discussion questions for any of the books please submit your question(s) to kbw@kootenaybookweekend.ca
